Gator Done

Gator Done everyone! Way to make it through the school year. The Gator Done page likes to congratulate or recognize Annie Wright students who have had some really incredible achievements over the year. This can range from athletics to awards and even academics.

district CHAMPIONS

The Upper School volleyball team has been very successful for the past few years. This year has been an exciting year for them. At the state tournament in Yakima, Washington they placed 8th overall! With a very young team, consisting of 5 freshman 3 juniors and only 2 seniors, it was a great accomplishment for such a short season! Overall the season ended on a great note and they wish to continue that into the next season! It is sad to say goodbye to the two seniors Tori Smith and Margaux Arntson. The team will be sad to see you go! Best wishes to the both of you. Gator Done US Volleyball team!

STEM in Hollywood

9th grade student Aurora Hake was one of the top ten finalists of a nation-wide contest for high school girls interested in STEM (Science, technology, Engineering and Mathematics). Aurora applied for the Marvel's Thor: The Dark World Ultimate Mentor Adventure, program, which included getting interviewed by the University of Washington's physics professor Dr. Anna Goussiou. Aurora then had to film herself for five minutes and this was presented in the movie premiere of Thor. Aurora and nine other amazing girls met many famous actors who were in the movie Marvel's Thor: The Dark World. Aurora was lucky enough to meet celebrities who had strong roles in all of the Thor movies, like Tom Hiddleston! Keep it up Aurora. Gator done!

FENCING GATOR

6TH GRADE student Benjamin Lee competed at the national Super Youth Circuit fencing tournament in Texas during the summer. Benjamin placed 6th out of 51 fencers in the U12 competition and 10th place out of 62 fencers in the U14 competition. He is currently ranked 11th in the country for his age bracket and is hoping to qualify for the Junior Olympics in Portland, Oregon in February. Gator Done Ben!

AWS rockstars

Josie Trueblood, Annika Huffines, and James Parrott have their own band called the Fist of Fire! They are sponsored by the Puget Sound Music for Youth Association. They played at the Swiss in October and are going to perform many more shows over the years. We wish you luck in the coming years, keep it up! Gator done!

THE REQUIREMENTS

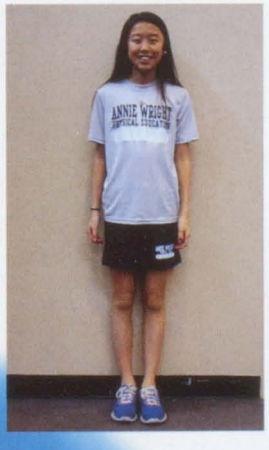

STUDENTS at Annie Wright have always worn uniforms. From Monday to Friday we, as students, do not have to spend precious sleeping minutes searching for our outfits. This helps us to not judge others on what they wear, but focus mainly on academics. The uniform is slightly different for each division of our school. In the Lower School the girls can wear sailor dresses or a skirt or pants with a red or navy polo. The boys wear polos and khakis. The Middle School girls wear a campbell plaid skirts or blue pants and a polo. The boys wear khakis and polos. The Upper Schoolers can wear a skirt or pants and for the top they can wear a white blouse or a white polo. Every friday, in the Upper School, there is a free shoe and shirt day. This entails that you can wear any Annie Wright shirt and any shoes of your choice.

Whats up?

There are few times during the year when the whole school comes together in celebration. This makes the annual Back to School Picnic a special way to start the school year. Put on by the Parents' Association, it serves as a welcome for both new and returning students. The picnic brings fun games, face painting, and fantastic edibles. During the course of the game, the older students are given the opportunity to volunteer while the younger ones participate in a wide range of games!

Mr. Droubay and his family are having a great time at the picnic.

4. Wilson Dicks, Miles Defebaugh, and Dolan Wynne
5. Cole Moyer

Jump Rope For Heart is a annual event that occurs the week before Valentines day. The whole Lower School participates to raise money and awareness for the American Heart Association. Each student is sponsored to partake in a 30 minute time slot that includes jump roping, hula hooping, dancing, and many other heart pumping activities.

Maya Anwar

Q & A

Q. Why do you like Jump Rope For Heart?

A. I like to jump rope and I get to do cool tricks like The Rocking Horse. I also like the idea of raising awareness and helping raise money for people with heart problems.

- Alyssa Sanders

Madison Harkins and Sofia La Rosa

Q. Why do you like Jump Rope For Heart?

A. I like that we made all the sick people feel happy and that I got to dance. Eating the yummy snacks made me feel healthy and made my heart happy.

- Olivia Traynor

Henry Moore

Q. Why do you like Jump Rope For Heart?

A. I like Jump Rope For Heart because jump roping helps your heart and because it helps to train you for more jumping.

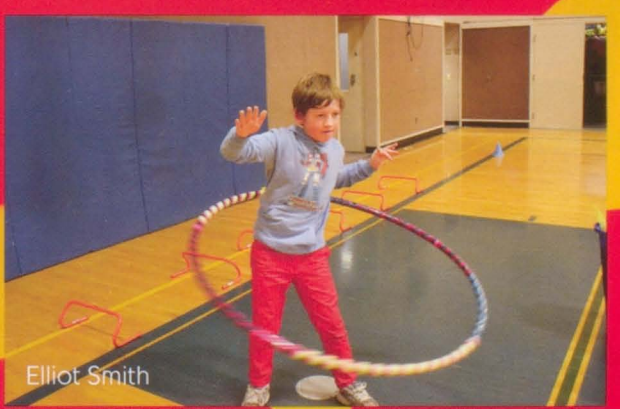

- Andrew Moore

Q. Why do you like Jump Rope For Heart?

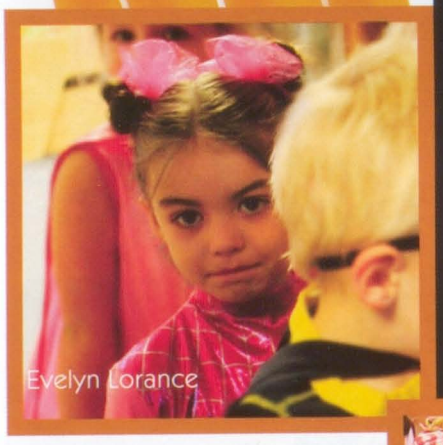

A. I really like to jump rope and raising the money for heart disease. It was fun to spend time with my friends and to help people.

spaghetti feed & BINGO

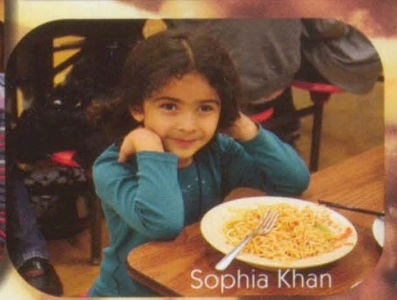

Delicious pasta night with family and friends

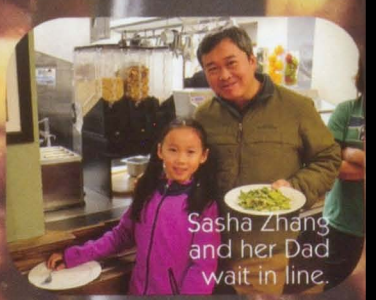

Spaghetti Feed & Bingo Night is a Lower School social event that happens in the middle of January. Lower school students, along with their parents gather in the dining hall and enjoy the lovely evening over a delicious spaghetti meal. When everyone finishes, they move to the Kemper Gym to play Bingo and win prizes. This event is always full of fun and great memories.

LS Academics

There are a lot of specials to take in Lower School. There is Spanish, Art, Lab Science, Music, Swim and P.E.. The goal is to create a program of study that accommodates each students individual style of learning. In the Lower School, the students also learn how to make decisions, take appropriate risks, ask questions, and respect others. These specials give Lower School students the chance to explore different subjects in fun and interactive ways.

What is your favorite thing about 5th grade?

This year in the first trimester of 5th grade we have been spending a lot of time in science class. One of my favorite things about this is that we have been doing experiments. I like to learn how to do them, and I like to see the reaction.

What is a goal you have for 5th grade?

This year in fifth grade I have a passion for running. I would like to be better at it by the end of the year. I think if I practice more then I will be able to do it.

What are you looking forward to in middle school?

I am excited to have less rules and more freedom in middle school. I think that it will be an interesting change of pace, going from lower school to middle school. For example, I like how lunches are longer, so I can hangout with my friends. I also like that there is a lounge.

Holiday Tea

Middle School holiday tea is an event ASB puts together every year. It is a time for Middle School students and teachers to get together, socialize, and embrace the holiday spirit. This event is held in the Great Hall where tables are set for everyone to enjoy tea, hot cocoa and snacks. Activities include choir performances, orchestra performances, stories and carols led by each advisory. Students and teachers partake in events spreading the holiday cheer.

This year Mr. Rockne and Mr. Price read The Night Before Christmas.

Middle School chorus members, Molly Bryant, Rachel Platok, Alexandra Bessler, Anni Liu, Amy Hou, and Claire Eveskcige sing with jolly spirits in the Great Hall.

Middle School Orchestra performs for the audience.

Hannah Pukis and Anna Andrade bond over laughter at holiday tea.

experiential WEEK

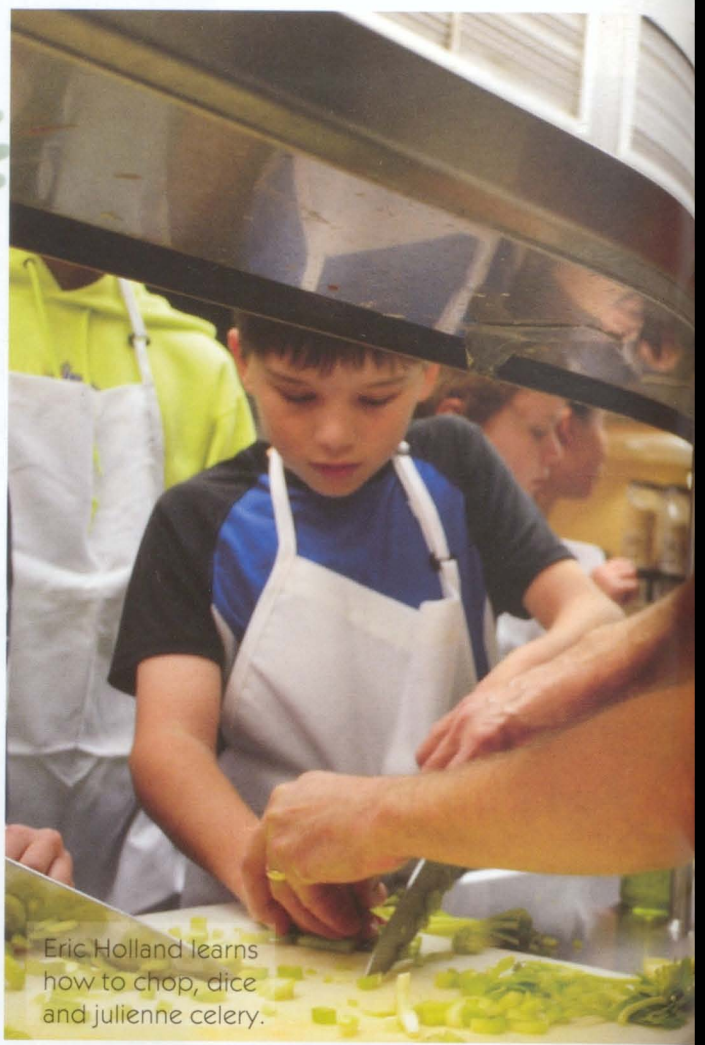

because who doesn't want an experience

Experiential Week is one of the most exciting weeks of the year for Middle School students. Each year, students get a week off to explore new activities and in the process, hopefully, find something they are passionate about. This year, students choose between Tinkering on the Water, Fusing Glass, Iron Chef, Community Service, Farm to Food, Rocket Science and All About Horses. Experiential Week presented the perfect opportunity for students to get out of their comfort zone and try new and exciting activities, all the while being surrounded by friends.

Eric Holland learns how to chop, dice and julienne celery.

Amber Moody walks around her horse.

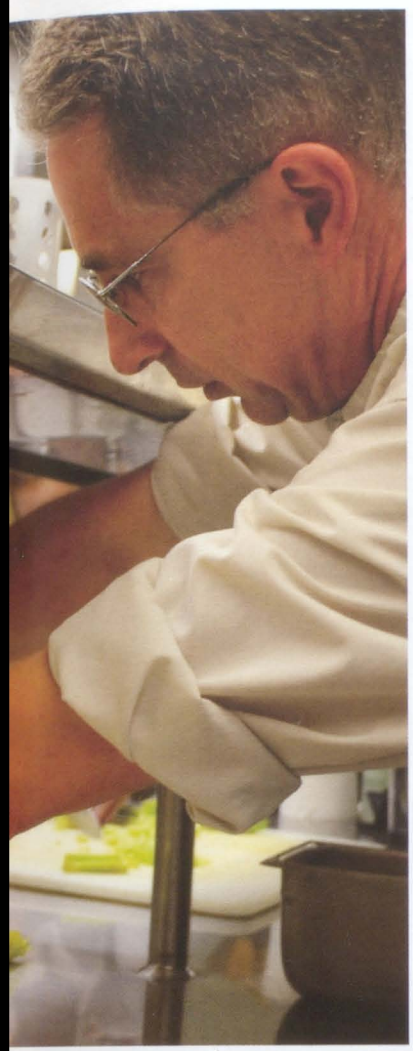

The tinkering group show off their sling shots.

MILK BOATS

Ride on a Milk Boat!

Milk Boats is a fun Middle School activity which happens at the end of the school year. It involves the integrated curriculum project presentation as well as an exciting competition on the American Lake. Middle schoolers get materials from the salvage yard, work as a team, and build their own boats. The winner of last year's competition was the Beluga Whales, including team members Sophie Huboly, Amber Moody, Sophie Rockne and Anna Andrade. Way to go everyone!

PINK PANTHER

Fun and Funky play

Pink Panther Strikes Again was put on by a lively cast of 37 Middle School students and featured a gorgeous set designed by Mr. Huffines. Mrs. Gettel, Mrs. Parks, Ms. Rockey, and a talented cast managed to create a wildly successful production that brought many tears of laughter to its audience, countless stories, and behind the scenes joy.

upperschool Orientation

Upper School orientation happens at the beginning of the fall trimester. It is an opportunity for students to prepare for the coming school year through participating in some fun activities and new students are warmly welcomed into the big family of Annie Wright. Various events are planned by the faculty and ASB members, including get-to-know-you activities, advisory sorting, games rotation, nuts and bolts, a campfire put on by the senior class, advisory competitions at Annie Olympics, faculty-free forum, and an overnight in the dormitories. Lots of great memories are made, and after the relaxation in the orientation, Upper Schoolers officially step into their new exciting year.

Earn Your Fortune

Don't be fooled by the smiles! The girls and boys who participated in Casino Night this year had only one thing on their mind - winning. Students walked around playing Blackjack, Poker and Texas Hold 'Em. At the end of the night, students with the most chips used them to win Macklemore tickets, Sounders tickets, a limo ride, and candy among other things!

Betrayal, schemes, mystery. These are just a few words that could be used to describe the whirl-wind of a night we call Muder Mystery: The Hungrier Games. The script, painstakingly created by Chrissy Wakeling, centered around the movie The Hunger Games. In this interactive play, the audience was asked to guess who had committed murder. Spaghetti dinner was served and, through a series of mini-skits, the audience followed the exciting storyline until Meffie (Tessa Thurman) won the games. Overall it was a night to remember!

Painful, yet hilarious. It all came full circle this year for the 11th annual Lip Sync when Men in Tights made a comeback for the grand finale of the show. This year's lip sync champions, Exo Exo, put on an amazing six minute performance to Heavy Rotation, Sorry Sorry, Buyao Buyao and Circus. Junior Amari Davis was a memorable Nicki Minaj in the highly energetic runner-up group Breezy's Angels. Second runner-up Wrecking the Motto with the Concept of our Hips All Night Like an Earthquake did super cool wave moves. Everyone put on an amazing show. Thanks for the memories.

Spirit Week

So Much Gator Spirit!

Spirit week is a week in February dedicated to showing the student's enthusiasm and school spirit! This year, we had four themed days for people to dress up in their wackiest clothes. On Mr. Monday, the Upper School became an all boys school. On Tacky Tourist Tuesday, we pulled out our fanny packs and Hawaiian shirts. On Way Back Wednesday, there were seventies hippies and eighties side ponytails. On Thursday, everybody dressed up according to a theme their advisory chose. It was a great week!

The Spade

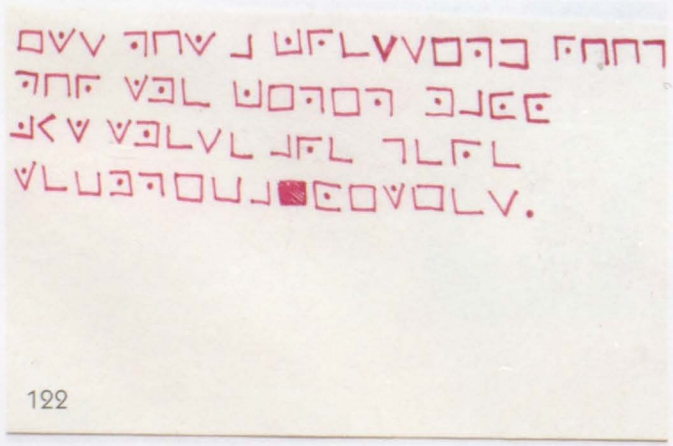

The finding of the spade is an Annie Wright tradition in which a spade is hidden by the graduated senior class for the current senior class to find. It is hidden somewhere among the school and these graduated seniors leave a stream of clues, also hidden around the school, that one by one lead to the spade. When the spade is found the current seniors make a list of senior privileges to be approved by faculty such as off-campus lunch. The photo on the right shows the Red Ties finding the spade hidden in crawlspace of the commons.

With every few clues found there was an ISBN number (shown right) that corresponded with a certain book. The purpose was to use this book to decode the final clue, the cipher. Seniors collaborated to find the books needed.

Below is a photo of a clue that needed to be decoded before moving to the next clue

Pictured to the left is the final clue leading to the spade. The first number in the sequence is the number book found in that order, the second number is the page number, and the third number is the letter in that word. Paris Cal shares her experience telling us, "It was a really stressful process for us seniors because we apparently did not have the correct edition of the books. I personally spent a long time with the wrong books trying to decode the cipher and in the end a group of us got together to try and figure it out. After many phone calls to the past seniors we finally got the first few words which were 'It all ends where it began.' Luckily Alexa Brenner knew we were supposed to receive our first clue in the commons and in the crawlspace was where we found the spade the day before the deadline!"

Tell us about your experience with finding the spade.

Tori Smith

"A true treasure hunt is hard to come across these days. This one is REAL!"

Margaux Arntson

"It was frustrating but ultimately rewarding. I had fun working with my classmates but I wish it had taken us less time to find it."

Tessa Thurman

"It was fun but we ended up working backwards because we accidentally found the 8th clue first. Although it was complicated in the end I was the one that ended up actually going down into the crawlspace to get the spade."

founder's DAY

Annie Wright turned 130 this year, and we celebrated at Founder's Day on Friday, January 17. Celebrations included the traditional Founder's Day cake for the seniors and a special chapel with former Mayor of Tacoma and current president of the Tacoma Historical Society Bill Baarsma as guest speaker. At lunch, Mrs. Schwartz cut each senior a piece of red frosted cake and four pieces had special trinkets in them that supposedly predict the future of the senior that finds it.

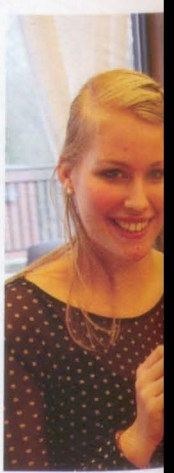

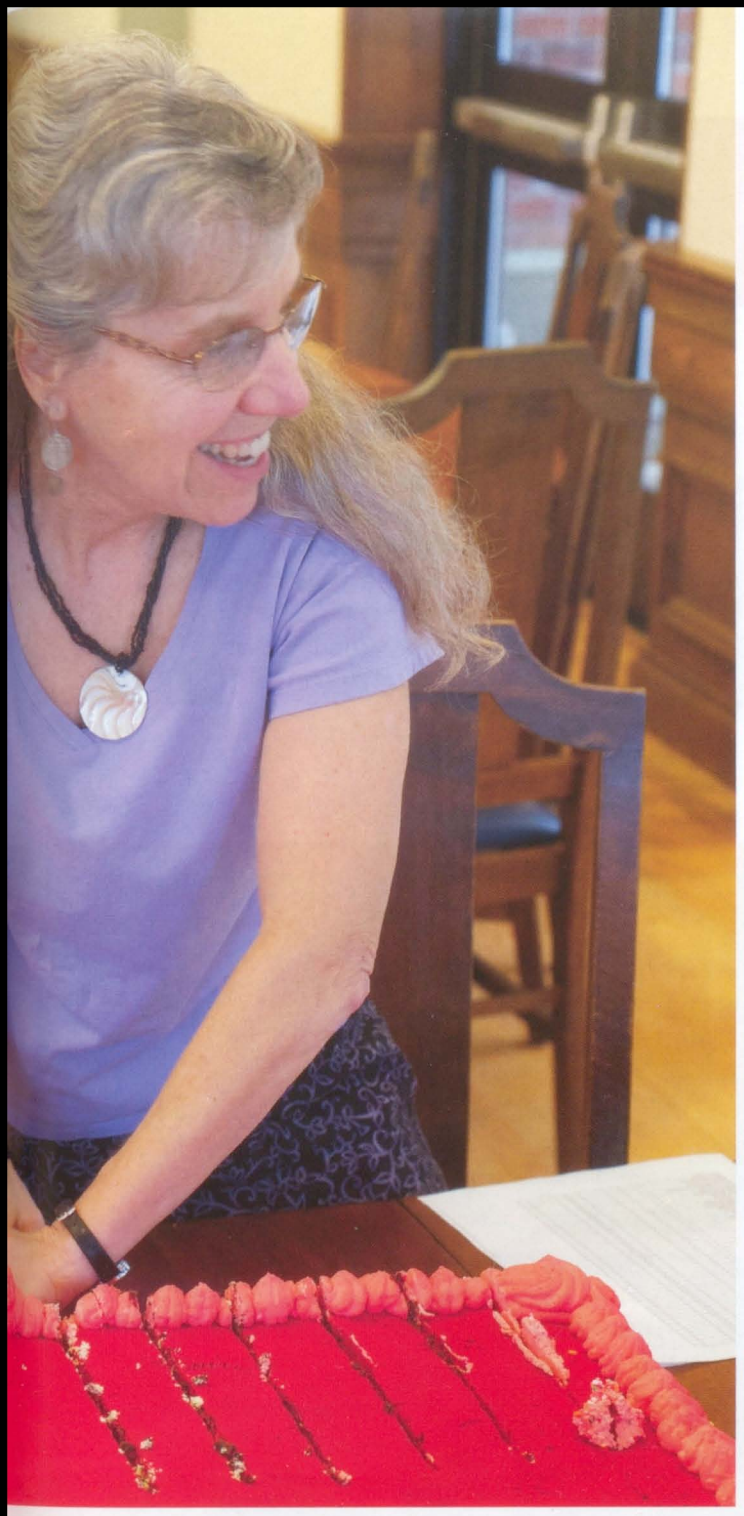

1. Christina Olivieri found the cross, which means she will be the most devoted to faith.
2. Addy Pettit found the thimble, which means she will prosper in business.
3. Elaine Aedo found the dime, which means she will be the wealthiest.
4. Catherine Cong found the ring, which means she will be the first to marry.

Mrs. Schwartz evenly divides the three layered cake before distributing a piece to each senior. The student that has attended Annie Wright the longest gets the first piece.

Red ties pose with their trinkets. Elaine Aedo found the dime, Christina Olivieri found the cross, Catherine Cong found the ring, and Addy Pettit found the thimble.

Q & A

Whose fortune did you find the most surprising?

Zoe Keskey

"Christina. I don't see her being the most religious in the future because she's not religious now. If she came back a nun for our ten year reunion I would probably laugh."

Tessa Thurman & Makana Shiraishi

"Christina. We love her but we don't see her as the most religious or faith-based person. We feel like she most fit the dime because she's going places."

Ji Young Lee

"Christina because I thought she'd get the ring. I've heard she's not religious. If I found out she became a nun I would respect her choice but I would be surprised."

First year plan

Alexa Brenner plans to spend her first year out of high school at McDaniel College.

Soobin An plans to study abroad in Korea for the second semester if she can! She lived there until she was 5, and would love to study there.

Kendra Brown will spend her time pursuing a degree in super secret stuff involving super secret organizations.

I'M READY OR NOT

Alexa Brenner is going to McDaniel College.

Tori Smith is going to Lafayette.

Preeti Pental is going to Santa Clara.

Hannah Gaffney is waiting to hear from 11 more colleges.

Addy Pettit does not think she will be attending University of Oregon.

Katrina Kalamar didn't even apply to UC-Berkeley.

Q & A

Q: Who helped the most with your college direction decision?

A: "My parents played a major role in my choice".

Karina Chan

Q: Where do you see yourself in five years?

A:"I see myself in my own jewelry shop."

Debbie Deng

Q: Who influenced your college decision more? Mom or Dad?

A:" My mom :) "

Hannah Gaffney looks forward to being integrating with my new classmates in the dorms

Sydney Juranich will live in Tingelstad Hall on PLU campus!

Mei Lin Kim has chosen to live in the dorms but is still questioning the choice of co-ed or all girls.

Tori Smith and Margaux Arntson take a huge leap and sign with their colleges in an Upper School chapel session. They both plan to play volleyball during their college experiences! Good luck to you both!!
